

WE ADVISE THE USE OF ALUMINUM OR PINEWOOD BATTENS

We certainly discommend the use of plywood battens. This material is overmuch sensitive to moisture so the risk of delamination is high.

In which case, as shown in attached picture (due to insufficient ventilation), the need for a complete facade renovation will become necessary.

We recommend the use of aluminum or pinewood battens treated with Tweha WoodProtect.

Please follow our Instructions for Use

TWEHA, 2020